

W. P. WALTON.

The demand for the old ticket, at least the Tilden part of it, we found by conversing with representative democrats from all over the State, amounts almost to unanimity and had a resolution to instruct for it been offered in the State convention, it would have been carried by a rising vote. No other man has such a hold on the people as Tilden and if he will consent to the use of his name he can be again elected to the office he was not permitted to hold. Since the defeat of the Morrison bill, the call for him has increased and it begins to look like the New York Sun's proposition that the Chicago convention shall nominate him and await his reply will be adopted.

CHAIRMAN WINCHESTER had a rough old experience in presiding over the democratic convention in Frankfort. He had some of the Times' idea of the essentials of a good presiding officer, namely, "a sound liver, a good digestion, a big belly and a voice like that of a boiler manufactory" and consequently the howling mob rode over him in a most disgraceful manner. The treatment he received was not only discourteous in the extreme, but it was cowardly and ungentlemanly and the little faction who engaged in trying to howl him down, ought to be heartily ashamed of themselves.

The Blue Grass Clipper, published at Midway by Mr. F. L. Spottwood, furnishes its readers with more reading matter than any paper in the State and of the very best character. It sends out as many sheets as the New York Herald and for its chance shows more enterprise than even that great journal. Considering that Midway is a very small town and not a county seat at that, Bro. Spottwood's success is as wonderful as it is great and gratifying.

AFTER the let of June an exemption law, purporting to be for the equalization of exemptions, but really to increase the already long list, will go into effect and the man who credits the average citizen will do so at his own risk. The Legislature should have passed a bill prohibiting the collection of any debt by law hereafter to be contracted. It amounts almost to that any way.

Gen. GRANT having lost his large fortune in stock gambling, some silly sentimentalists are trying to rush a bill through Congress to place him on the retired list of the army with $19,000 a year. It seems to us that the country has more than paid off with fifty lucra any debt of gratitude it may have owed Gen. Grant and that no further aids should be made on the treasury for him.

The House could not bear the idea of reducing the number of office-holders and in consequence Senator Smith's bill to abolish the railroad commission and transfer its powers to the commissioners of the Sinking Fund, was defeated. It was a good and economic measure and if the members had had the interest of the tax payers at heart, it would have become a law.

THERE is a deficit in the State treasury of $485,000 and to meet it and the numerous and many of them useless, appropriations made by the Legislature, that body has passed a bill increasing taxation 5 cts. on the $100 for the years 1884 and 1885. This is no doubt the best way out of a very bad condition of affairs, but the yeomanry will not take well to it.

We join the Louisville Post in the query: why don't the police suppress the Mother Hubbard dresses? They are the flabbiest, meanest, most ungentlemanly, slop, plop-woppy looking costumes on earth. No husband can have an appetite for breakfast if his wife wears one. It forces him to take a cocktail in order to swallow a single biscuit.

Er Cincinnati keeps on she will have all her bad men in the penitentiary by 1900. The average weekly convictions since the mob number 15 and the work goes nobly on. Saturday's batch was up to the maximum and the sentences ran from three to thirteen years, each man getting the extreme penalty in his case.

The P. M. General must be a pious chap. He has ordered the name of the postoffice at Dampfool, Tenn., to be changed to Blizard and the people of that section say that if they are not allowed to call their office what they choose, they can still apply its former name with much emphasis to the p. m. g.

The Legislators voted an appropriation of $1,664 19 to pay for the daily newspapers they have read since the session began. The State should just as well be required to furnish the body with its cigars and this petty grab, although sustained by precedent, is a very mean one.

A NUMBER of Georgia editors are contesting in a prize pedestrian ring. We can't see what on earth an editor wants to learn how to walk for as long as he can get a pass on the cars. The railroads have evidently shut down on the boys.

COL. FRANK WOLFORD has announced his candidacy for a return to Congress and he is mighty apt to get there, even if the cloyer and popular Col. Thomas Z. Morrow does contest for the prize, as it is reported he will.

The Legislature was to adjourn yesterday and unless the order was rescinded at the eleventh hour that body is now no more. Praise the Lord, and may He never permit another such to impose itself on the State.

Hewitt is to introduce a tariff bill.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

—Senator Haggard's bill to equalize assessments is now a law.

—Senate bill for the benefit of D. B. Edmiston passed the House.

—A bill to prevent the sale of liquor within two miles of Crab Orchard passed both Houses.

—The House passed a bill requiring counties to purchase their books of record now paid for by the State.

—The House passed the bill allowing jailers 65 cents per day for board of prisoners, an increase of 15 cents.

—The office of the Inspector of mines with a salary of $1,800 is one of the creations of the present assembly. It will be a decided success.

—The State tax on liquor licenses will be $50 hereafter instead of $25 as present, Gov. Knott having signed the bill passed by the Legislature.

—As was expected the Senatorial investigating Committee reported that nobody was guilty either of offering or accepting a bribe in the long drawn out contest.

—The Commissioners for the Eastern Lunatic Asylum appointed by the Governor are A. W. Marshall, Dr. L. B. Todd, Walter Scott, Dr. F. O. Young, W. Larue Thomas and D. D. Laudeman. This Asylum had $37,000 voted to it for repairs a few days ago.

—Both Houses have passed the bill giving the Commissioners power to lease the convicts for employment in mines in addition to the occupations now permitted by law. This will be a solution of the overcrowded penitentiary problem and Gov. Knott will not have to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—The young democrats of Ohio have passed resolutions favoring Tilden for President.

—The remains of Dr. Samuel D. Gross were cremated at LeMoine Crematory, Washington, Pa.

—Lightning struck a mill in North Carolina, killed three men and wounded several others.

—The theatrical event of the season in Louisville is Clara Morris, who is playing there this week.

—James S. Coleman, a leading colored school-master of Laurens county, S. C., was hanged for murder and outrage.

—The liabilities of Grant & Ward are estimated as high as $10,000,000 and the assets believed to be very small.

—During a game of base ball at Chillicothe Friday the grand stand fell and about twenty persons were seriously injured.

—Tracy and Small, two circus men, were given five years each in the penitentiary for highway robbery, by the Winchester court.

—Niles Petty, a negro, charged with outraging Miss Vannest, was taken from the jail at Elizabethtown, Ky., by a masked mob and hanged.

—The boiler of a railroad engine exploded at Parsons, Ky., killing two men and wounding several others. The round-house was completely demolished.

—Jane Edwards, said to be 115 years old, died in the Louisville poor house. She was so shriveled and dried as to be hardly distinguishable from a mummy.

—Fred Hopt, alias Welcome, sentenced to be shot instead of hanged, in accordance with a statute, will be allowed the privilege.

—Mr. Morrison and Mr. Blackburn representing the revenue reformers in the House say that no tariff legislation will be reported from the Ways and Means Committee this session.

—Gen. Grant's entire property, it is said, has been swept away. His wife has nobly offered to give up her private property to aid in meeting his debts, but it is objected to by Mr. Vanderbilt and others.

—East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia R. R. has made arrangements to run over the Kentucky Central from Livingston to Cincinnati and in consequence stock in the latter road has jumped from 60 to 68 cents.

—A Mt. Sterling dispatch says: One hundred and eighty-five moonshiners, guards men and witnesses from Letcher and other counties, left for Covington yesterday. This illicit manufacture is very much on the increase in those counties.

—The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia has declared the law providing for the election of registers and judges of election unconstitutional. This places the election machinery of the whole State back in the hands of the coalitionists.

—There are only three nations besides England that practice the policy of free trade, viz: Norway, Turkey, and Switzerland. Russia tried it in 1924, France under the first Napoleon, and Germany under the Anglo-French treaty, but all abandoned it for some reason.

—The assignment of Grant & Ward and Ulysses S. Grant, Ferdinand Ward and Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., and James D. Fish, copartners under the firm name of Grant & Ward, has been filed in New York. The preferred claims, including those given against Jesse R. Grant, amount to about $300,000.

—Gath says that a friend of Mr. Tilden, who sometimes hits the mark told him that when the New York Democratic State Convention meets it will declare its support of Mr. Tilden for President, and that thereupon Mr. Tilden will produce a letter emphatically declining to be the candidate of the party.

—Lewis C. Garrigus has brought suit in the United States Court in Louisville against T. A. Frazier and J. S. Stanley, of Russellville, for $80,000 damages. Garrigus was the republican candidate for Attorney General in this State two years ago. Stanley shot him in the arm at Russellville May 15, 1883. He charges Frazier with conspiring to kill him.

—A New York firm has orders for 1,000,000 torch handles for the use of night political processions in the coming campaign.

—Elliott, the murderer of Barnes in Mercer county, last fall, got only four years, when it is said he should have been hung.

—John F. Slater, a cotton manufacturer at Norwich, Conn., who died last week, gave $1,000,000 in 1882 for the education of Southern negroes.

—More than two-thirds of Tensas and Madison parishes, La., are under water and live stock is perishing from starvation and buffalo gaue.

—The private watchman at the Atlantic Garden, Cincinnati, shot Thomas McDermott dead for a very slight provocation. Let the mob investigate the case.

—Over 100,000 persons are thrown out of work and $100,000 loss is entailed by the burning of the Narragansett (Mass.) Suspend Company's works on Saturday.

—Capt. H. N. Adams, assistant superintendent of the government canal works at Louisville, was instantly killed. His steamer yacht got caught between a wharf boat and the steamer Guthrie and Capt. Adams' head became fastened between the roof of the boat and the wharf and his neck was broken.

—A New York telegram says: "During the past few days it has been quietly given out by men known to be in Tilden's confidence, that the old gentleman had allowed his stubbornness to soften down, and would, undoubtedly, before long find it politic and possible to retract his positive words of refusal."

—Five out of the six Michigan democrats in Congress have decided to inform their constituents that in their opinion the only way to save the democratic party is to nominate Speaker Carlisle for the Presidency. They will issue an address embodying their views, and will endeavor to secure a delegation for Carlisle at Chicago.

—James B. Garrison, the living skeleton who married Bertha E. Clear of Hestonville while he was on exhibition at the dime museum in Philadelphia, died last week at Union. He took his separation from his bride of a night very much to heart, and went under the care of a physician almost as soon as the suit to annul their marriage was entered.

—The episode of yesterday is but the beginning, not the end. The battle is yet to open. Though baffled in the preliminary skirmish, the adherents of the just and honest measures which yesterday suffered death by the guillotine have no cause for alarm or discouragement. If ever there was a defeat out of which the vanquished could draw consolation in abundant measure, it is this: if ever a victory beaming with glory and triumph is to be won, it is this: if ever a victory beaming with glory and triumph is to be won, it is this.

—Niles Petty, a negro, charged with outraging Miss Vannest, was taken from the jail at Elizabethtown, Ky., by a masked mob and hanged.

—The boiler of a railroad engine exploded at Parsons, Ky., killing two men and wounding several others. The round-house was completely demolished.

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Col. J. W. Weatherford and J. J. Drye left yesterday for Colorado, with a view to change of base.

—The quilt sale by the ladies of the Christian church on Saturday resulted satisfactorily. The worsted "crazy" was sold to J. J. Drye for $17. Not being able to attend I have not a report of the sales.

—Papers from G. O. B. London, are arriving pretty regularly. The agony of the British nation is a sort of bi-furcated affair. The politicians are dodging dynamite—the ecclesiastics are in terror of the evangelists.

—Bill Williams has taken a lease on all the country roads, intending to utilize them as trotting tracks for the traction engine. It is whispered that with admirable forecast he has formed a partnership with the undertaker.

—Society as such is in an unusually quiet condition. We hear of a dancing-master proposing "to teach the young ideas how to kick" somebody, but know nothing of his success. The thing is encouraging, however, as it indicates a disposition to commence at the foundation and build education from the ground up.

—J. C. Young appeared by invitation at the Christian church on Sunday afternoon and notwithstanding the notice was but partially circulated, he had a large audience. It is needless to add that he gave universal satisfaction. The invitation was urgently repeated and he consented to return on next Sunday. Services at 3 P. M. and at night.

FINE

Lincoln Co. Farm For Sale.

I offer for sale privately my farm on which I now reside, lying on the Middleburg pike, three miles from Hustonville, containing about 840 Acres of land, known as one among the best grain and seed farms in the country. It is well, plenty of water, in a low state of cultivation, improvements good, all necessary outbuildings, two large barns, building in first-rate order, plenty of timber on land. About 35 acres are in corn, about 45 acres in small grain and balance in grass. I also have about 100 Acres of land about 6 miles from the first, lying on the Middleburg pike, about 50 Acres cleared, balance in timber. Would make a good little home. Also 100 Acres of fine timber adjoining the first, about 10 miles higher up the pike. Also about 100 Acres of newly cleared land lying near the road from Hustonville to Casey county. It is a fine body of timber and the most of it very well suited for cultivation. The above named tracts of timbered land all lie in Casey county. I will sell any or all the above lands on reasonable terms, as cash or deferred to suit. Also one wishing to purchase would do well to give me a call.

Dissolution of Partnership

The partnership heretofore existing between JACK ADAMS & SON was this day by mutual consent dissolved by the withdrawal of Jack Adams, Sr., from the firm. All parties knowing themselves indebted to the above named firm, either by note or account, are requested to make immediate settlement, as the partnership business must be wound up and all claims that are not settled at once will be placed in the hands of a collector. In the future the business will be conducted by Jack Adams, Jr., who will use every effort to maintain the standing of the house, he now occupies which for the past thirty years it has held—that is, the cheapest store in Mt. Vernon. He has now on hand a full stock of New Spring Goods in every variety, which he will sell to his old and new customers at the lowest prices.

Yours truly, JACK ADAMS & SON. (245-10-00)
